

John 16:33

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world, you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Peace in the New Testament is the Greek word "Eirene" and it means completeness, oneness, or wholeness. A person who possesses the peace Christ spoke of is at rest in their soul, calm in their spirit, and stable with their thoughts. The person without it experiences inner chaos, worry, and anxiety.

This inner tranquility transcends human intellect, is of divine origin, and cannot be duplicated by worldly wisdom. It begins with a personal relationship with Jesus Christ when one is "born again" and continues as the believer remains in fellowship with our Savior.
